

Benjamin Albano

Ben is an Electrical Engineering and German double major.

On campus involvement:

EuroTech
UConn Woodsmen

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

It's something to be proud of

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

"Take initiative, be bold!"

Ariane Garrett

Ariane is a Biomedical Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

Engineers Without Borders - Vice President
Peer Research Ambassador
Research Assistant

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

Horsebarn Hill

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

"Make time for friends and fun in between all the school work!"

Benjamin Hart

Ben is a Electrical Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

Pi Kappa Phi - Treasurer
Tau Beta Pi Honor Society
Upsilon Pi Epsilon Honor Society

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

The campus size

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Don’t be afraid to step outside of your comfort zones!”

Caroline Sekel

Caroline is a Computer Science major.

On campus involvement:

TEDxUConn
Pi Beta Phi

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

Dairy Bar!

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Get involved!”

Cassie Rossetti

Cassie is a Biomedical Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

Phi Sigma Rho Sorority
Panhellenic Council
Husky Ambassadors
HuskyTHON Morale Captain

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

Dairy Bar

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Take advantage of all the opportunities UConn has to offer; stay open-minded and don’t be afraid to try new things!”

Delaney Meyer

Delaney is a Civil Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

UConn Tap Team - Vice President
UConn Dance Company

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

How friendly everyone is!

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Stay ahead of the game as much as you can! That way you’re not cramming last minute!”

Ekam Rai

Ekam is a Computer Science major.

On campus involvement:

ACM
Husky Bhangra
STEM Scholars
Club Running

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

The people and my friends here.

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Take in as much as possible, try new things, and be open to change!”

Jae-Kyung Lee

Jae is a Mechanical Engineering and German double major.

On campus involvement:

Engineering Ambassador
EuroTech

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

Campus and Student Union Mac n' Cheese

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“It's ok to ask for help.”

Jennifer Mulqueen

Jen is a Environmental Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

Research Assistant for CEE Department
Environmental + Engineering Society - President
Tau Beta Pi
Undergraduate Teaching Assistant

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

Dairy Bar

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Reach out and get in the habit of using your resources early, don’t be afraid!”

Kat Konon

Kat is a Chemical Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

EcoHusky
AIChE
SWE

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

Sledding on horsebarn hill

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Play oozeball, bubble soccer, and canoe battleship!”

Lucas McPhee

Lucas is an Electrical Engineering major.

On campus involvement:
Intramural Flag Football (winter)

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

How good my professors have been at teaching material and extra help.

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Don’t be afraid to get extra help if you need it.”

Rahul Kantesaria

Rahul is a Computer Science & Engineering major.

On campus involvement:
KDSAP
Intramural Sports
CSE Research

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

The people

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Take things one step at a time; stay whelmed”

Samuel Anderson

Sam is a Computer Engineering and Electrical Engineering double major.

On campus involvement:

Honors Program
Undergraduate Research

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

The Great Community

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Be nice to everyone and find a good work-life balance!”

Tim Lynch

Tim is a Mechanical Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

Tutoring Center

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

The food

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Get your stuff done!”

TJ Fauci

Lead Tutor

TJ is a Computer Science major.

On campus involvement:

SUBOG Special Events - Chairman
SUBOG Films
SUBOG Outreach

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

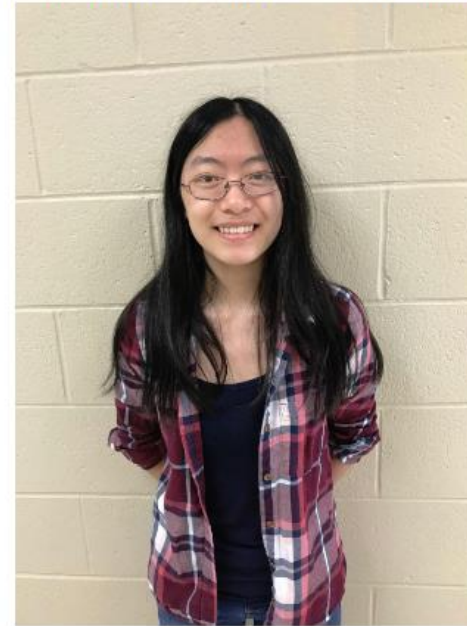

All the free stuff you can get

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Get involved, it’s a great way to make friends!”

Xuan Chau

Xuan is a Computer Science & Engineering major.

On campus involvement:

ACM
Honors Student
ALD

My favorite thing about UCONN is...

The campus is nice

What is your best advice for a first-year UCONN student?

“Get involved early, discover your resources, change your living style to be efficient and convenient!”

Saranya Tadikonda

Computer Science

On campus involvement

She's the First

Favorite thing about UConn:

I love that it's so big.

Best advice for a first-year UConn student:

It's okay to ask for help.

Kyle Fujio

Computer Science and Engineering

On campus involvement:

Association of Computing Machinery (VP)

Favorite thing about UConn:

The students.

Best advice for a first-year UConn student:

Set priorities and make a planner.

Lauren Moore

Computer Science

On campus involvement:
Windham Heights Tutoring

Favorite thing about UConn:
CS classes and the people.

Best advice for a first-year UConn student:
Talk to everyone and don't be afraid to ask for help.

Thomas Gross

Mechanical and Computer Science Engineering- Returning Tutor

On campus involvement:
Swing and Blues Club

Favorite thing about UConn:
Dairy Bar

Best advice for a first-year UConn student:
Take long walks and learn where everything is before you get lost.